In the Wake of the Game By GUS MALBERT

The Colts return to-day to meet the Roanoke team for four games, and—whisper—the Colts return in third place. Of course, you saw it coming. So did we, but nevertheless it came somewhat as a shock. Still there's fight left in us. Didn't we tie the second game? There's something in that. Not every ball club can tie a ball game. Mr. Poynter, or Poyner, or Pointer, they've given him a dozen aliases already, reported. In addition to reporting, Mr. Poynter, etc., lost us a ball game. But then he's a pitcher.

Likewisse and in extension and like into third place.

Just who will be the to-day hasn't been told by the horoscope. It took took Mr. Poynter to lose the first. Who will be the sacrificial offering the will be the sacrificial offering one of the new expectations.

Next to not winning either of the double-header in Pirate town, the most striking thing is that Johnny Mace and his second home run in as many days. That almost compensates for the Likewise, and in extenuation, Secretary Bradley announced last night that Manager Griffin was "expecting" two or three more pitchers before the week ends. He'll doubtless need them. Roanoke wants that second place, and Roanoke is going to put up an awful battle to keep the ground gained by a double slamming of the Goobers. It isn't often that a visiting horde can beat the Buschmen twice during any series when the Buschmen are performing in Buschville. But Buck Pressly did it twice in one day. That gives him a working majority, and he wants to see that majority increased after he counts the vote from Richmond precinct.

Next to not winning either of the double-header in Pirate town, the most striking thing is that Johnny Mace made his second home run in as many days. That almost compensates for the silde into third place.

Norfolk dispossessed Newport News, and the Tars are now gaining the sun-thine from fifth place.

BLUES CALL MEN EARLY THIS SEASON

Football Practice Begins September 3-Billy Word Not to Go to University.

to University.

A call has been Issued for all candidates for the Richmond Blues football team to report at the Blues' Armory Wednesday, September 3, when practice will begin.

This will be the Blues third year in football, and the prospects are bright for the best team ever turned out by the soldiers. All the football-living public remembers the team that finished last season in a bluze of glory and swamped their old rivals, the Norfolk Blues.

Practically every man of last year's team will be back, which means the team will start with such experienced players as Word, Richardson, McRee, Sweeney, Bahen, King, Jacobs, Van Pelt, Cason, Dennis, Jones, Burke, Quaries and Williams.

Besides the members who played last year additional strength has been added to the team by Walker, the glant tackle of Medical College of Virginia, who is now a member of the Blues: Spencer, of last year's squad of University College of Medicine, and about fifteen new candidates from the John Marshall High School and other prep schools and city amateur teams.

The foetball enthusiasts of Richmond will have the pleasure of seeing Billy Word in action here this fail, as he will positively play with the Blues, having decided yesterday not jo attend the University of Virginia. The opening game will be at Hampden-Sidney College on September 20. The schedule: ule: September 20-Hampdn-Sidney College at
